All such policies must stipulate that any indemnity shall be payable to the Creditor as a named insured, but the mere reception by the Creditor of any insurance indemnity shall not have the effect of reducing the amount of the obligations secured by the Hypothec, unless the Creditor expressly applies it towards the payment of a specific amount and then, only to the extent of such imputation. 9. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

- 9.1 The Grantor shall be in default hereunder upon the occurrence, without notice or other formality, of any of the following events:
- a) the Grantor fails to perform any obligation secured hereunder at the time when such performance is due;
 - b) any of the representations or warranties made under Section 7 hereof is false in some material respect;
 - c) the Grantor fails to perform any covenant hereunder;
 - d) the Grantor is in default under any contract or agreement with the Creditor;

- e) the Grantor destroys, deteriorates or substantially reduces the value of any Charged property or securities, normal wear and tear excepted;
- f) the Grantor or the Borrower ceases to carry on its enterprise or an important part thereof, becomes insolvent or becomes subject to any law relating to insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or to arrangements with creditors or any petition in bankruptcy is taken against the Grantor or the Borrower;
- g) any of the Charged property is subject to any proceeding of seizure or enforcement, or to the exercise of a hypothecary right, by a creditor, sequestrator or any person performing similar functions;
- h) the Grantor or the Borrower loses its legal existence; an order is issued or a resolution is adopted for its winding-up or liquidation.

9.2 Upon the occurrence of any event of default, the Creditor may, in connection with all or part of the obligations secured by the Hypothec, declare that the Borrower has lost the benefit of the term which may have benefited to it. It may further cease to make advances, terminate the right of the Borrower to use the credit facilities, the repayment of which is secured by the Hypothec, or terminate the right of the Borrower to make certain forms of utilization of such credits; the Creditor may request immediate payment of all obligations, and may exercise all its recourses against the Grantor to which it may be entitled in case of default under law or hereunder.

10. LENDER'S RECOURSES IN CASE OF DEFAULT

10.1 In case of default, whichever hypothecary rights the Creditor may decide to exercise, the following provisions shall apply:

10.1.1 in order to protect or to realize the value of the Charged property, the Creditor shall be at liberty, at the Grantor's expense, to:

- a) pursue the processing of the Charged property or proceed with any operations to which they are submitted by the Grantor in the ordinary course of its business;
- b) alienate or dispose of any Charged property which may be obsolete, may perish or is likely to depreciate rapidly;
- c) use for its benefit all information obtained while exercising its rights;
- d) perform any of the Grantor's obligations;
- e) exercise any right attached to the Charged property;
- f) for the exercise any of its rights, use the premises in which the Grantor's property is located;

10.1.2 the Creditor shall exercise its rights in good faith, so that the obligations secured by the Hypothec be reduced, in a reasonable manner, taking into account all circumstances;

10.1.3 the Creditor may, directly or indirectly, acquire the Charged property;

10.1.4 the Creditor, when exercising its rights, may waive any right of the Grantor, with or without consideration therefor;

10.1.5 the Creditor shall not be bound to make an inventory, to take out insurance or to furnish any other security;

10.1.6 the Creditor shall not be bound to continue to carry on the Grantor's enterprise or to make the Charged property productive, or to maintain such property in operating condition.

10.2 If the Creditor elects to exercise its rights to take in payment and the Grantor or the Borrower requires that the Creditor instead sell the Charged property on which such right is exercised, the Grantor hereby acknowledges that the Creditor shall not be bound to abandon its recourse of taking in payment unless, prior to the expiry of the time period allotted for surrender, the Creditor i) has been granted a security which it considers satisfactory, guaranteeing that said Charged property will be sold at a sufficiently high price to enable its claim to be paid in full; ii) has been reimbursed of all costs and expenses incurred therefor, including all fees of consultants and legal counsel, iii) has been advanced the necessary sums for the sale of said Charged property; the Borrower further acknowledges that the Creditor shall have the right to choose the type of sale it may carry out.

10.3 The Grantor will be deemed to have surrendered the Charged property held by the Creditor or on its behalf if the Creditor has not, within the delays permitted by law or by a tribunal to surrender, received written notice from the Grantor to the effect that it is opposed to the exercise of the hypothecary recourse set forth in the prior notice.

- 10.4 Where the Creditor sells the Charged property itself, it shall not be required to obtain any prior assessment by a third party.
- 10.5 The Creditor may choose to sell the Charged property with legal warranty given by the Grantor or with complete or partial exclusion of such warranty.

11. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 11.1 The Hypothec is hereby created in addition to and not in substitution or replacement for any other hypothec or security held by the Creditor; it does not affect the Creditor's right of set-off.
- 11.2 The Creditor shall be at liberty to invest any monies or instruments received or held by it in pursuance of this agreement or deposit them in a non-interest bearing account without having to comply with any legal provisions concerning the investment of property of others;
- 11.3 The Creditor shall be at liberty to impute any amounts collected in the exercise of its rights or received by it prior to or after any event of default as it may choose, without having to comply with legal provisions concerning the imputation of payment;
- 11.4 The Hypothec shall be a continuing security which shall remain in full force and effect despite the repayment from time to time, of the whole or of any part of the obligations secured hereunder; it shall remain in full force until the execution of a final release by the Creditor.
- 11.5 The mere lapse of time provided for the Grantor to perform its obligations or the arrival of the term shall automatically create a default, without any obligation for the Creditor to serve any notice or prior notice to the Grantor.
- 11.6 The exercise by the Creditor of any of its rights shall not preclude it from exercising any other right under this agreement or the law; the rights of the Creditor shall be cumulative and not alternative. The non-exercise by the Creditor of one of its rights shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent exercise of such right. The Creditor shall be at liberty to exercise its rights under this agreement without any obligation to exercise any right against any other person liable for payment of the obligations secured hereunder and without having to realize any other security which secures such obligations.
- 11.7 The Creditor is hereby designated as the irrevocable mandatary of the Grantor with full powers of substitution for the purpose of paragraph 11.8 or for the purpose of carrying out any and all acts and execute any and all deeds, proxies or other documents which it may deem useful in order to exercise its rights or which the Grantor neglects or refuses to execute or to carry out.
- 11.8 The Creditor shall be at liberty to perform any of the Grantor's liabilities under this agreement. It may then immediately request payment of any expense incurred in doing so, including interest at the rate provided for in paragraph 8.10 above.
- 11.9 The Creditor shall be at liberty to appoint any person or persons for the purpose of the exercising of its rights, actions or the performance of any covenant resulting from this agreement or law; in such case, the Creditor shall supply such person with any information relating to the Grantor or the Charged property.
- 11.10 The Creditor shall not be liable for material injuries or damages resulting from its fault, unless such fault is gross or intentional;
- 11.11 The rights hereby conferred upon the Creditor shall benefit all its successors, including any entity resulting from the merger of the Creditor with any other person or persons.
- 11.12 Any notice to the Grantor shall be delivered to its address mentioned hereunder or to any other address of which the Creditor has been given written notice; any notice to the Creditor shall be delivered to its branch office, the address of which is set out below, or to any other address of which the Grantor has been given written notice.
- 11.13 This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Québec.
